

International Journal of Collaborative Research on Internal Medicine & Public Health

The "International Journal of Collaborative Research on Internal Medicine & Public Health (IJCRIMPH)" has been successfully welcomed by the readers and audience since 2009. We are glad that the journal and its articles have been indexed by renowned databases including:

- EMBASE (By Elsevier)
- ProQuest Public Health Database
- EBSCO Academic Search™ Complete
- Gale (Cengage Learning) Library Database
- DOAJ
- IndexCopernicus Journals Master List
- Open J-Gate
- Intute
- British Library
- Medical Journals Index (MJl)
- SJSU Library Catalog
- GFMER
- Standard Periodical Directory, and etc.

With the increasing number of submissions that we are receiving and in order to consolidate the excellent work and achievements of previous issues, we have decided to expand our Journal Reviewers.

Therefore, we are looking for interested professionals and reviewers:

- Who have a substantial experience of at least 2 years in reviewing research studies (Please list the journals you have reviewed for or are currently reviewing)
- Who are very familiar with the reporting guidelines relevant to each type of original research (Example: PRISMA, CONSORT, STROBE, and etc.)
- Who have a background in Internal Medicine, Epidemiology, Research and Biostatistics
- Who can follow the different criteria for submission of manuscripts and instruction for authors of different high impact-factor journals (preferably JAMA, BMJ, NEJM, Archives, and etc.)
- Who have experience in ethical values of a research study, and confidentiality concerns in clinical trials or similar studies
- Who are willing to dedicate time and be committed to the journal
- Willing to review or re-review an average of 4-6 submissions per year
- Capable of conducting reviews within four to six weeks (IJCRIMPH is committed to provide quick and complete reviews on the papers and take a decision on time, however, exceptions can be made)
- Who provide article critiques with attention to details, and give specific recommendations on how the author can improve their paper

If you think you can fulfil these requirements and are interested to contribute as Journal Reviewer, please let us know via email at ijcrimph@iomcworld.com. Please send us your interest via email mentioning your field of expertise (themes which you can review), along with your updated detailed CV (Resume). [Note: The reviewer positions are volunteer and non-paid positions]

Thank you.
